Fifty-five years ago on a beautiful April day there gathered around a cheerful camp fire at a little spot between Greensboro and Raleigh the soldiers of the Blue and the Gray. A stranger would have thought by their gaiety, games, foot races, horse trading and general behavior that a spring festival was being celebrated. But why this place? This was the spot set aside as neutral ground between the armies of General Sherman and General Johnston just before the close of the War Between the States. This place was called Durham's Station in honor of a venerable townsman, Dr. B. L. Durham. Ordinarily, about two hundred people resided at this little station. But on this memorable spring day thousands of men swarmed the woods in this vicinity. General Sherman's army camped just to the south of the station, and General Johnston's about three and one-half miles west, at the Bennett Place. Soldiers from both sides met at Durham Station and had a genuinely good time. They found a frame house just a little way from the station full of tobacco that had been manufactured by Mr. John R. Green for the soldiers in Gray. The house was sacked and men from both sides filled their pockets with smoking tobacco.

After Johnston had surrendered to Sherman at the Bennett House, the soldiers scattered in every direction. Some lived in Texas, some in Maine. So it happened that later Mr. Green's tobacco went "express prepaid" from Maine to Texas. When the tobacco carried away began to give out, these men began to feel a desire for more of the "celestial weed." Thus it happened that the railroad agent, postmaster and other officials around this little burg began to receive letters from various places asking for more of that Durham tobacco. Mr. Green was quick to see his opportunity, and accordingly began to manufacture more tobacco and call it "Durham Smoking Tobacco." He adopted the Durham bull as his trade mark. The story of the subsequent litigation over this trade mark need not be told here. Suffice it to say "Bull Durham" won out and still survives. After the death of Mr. Green in 1869, Messrs. W. Y. Blackwell & Company purchased the business. Fresh capital was applied and the tobacco business took on the big boom that has never ceased. The sign of the "Bull" is seen around the world to-day.

After the war Durham's population rapidly increased. The station became a town and was incorporated by the act of the General Assembly, ratified April 10, 1869. It was named for the man who gave the land on which to build the station, Dr. B. L. Durham. At the time the above bill passed the General Assembly the town of Durham was in the county of Orange. Exactly twelve years later a bill for the establishment of Durham county was ratified by the people, having been introduced in the General Assembly by the Honorable Caleb B. Green. A slice of Orange and a slice of Wake went to make up the county. Just a few years ago another part of Wake was cut off and handed over to Durham in the form of Carr township.

From this small beginning Durham has grown into a thriving, progressive, wide-awake city. Its importance can best be gathered from the information which follows:

AREA: 3.87 square miles. (Including districts within proposed extension of city limits, 11.5 square miles.)

BANKS: Nine banks with combined capital and surplus of $2,709,000.00. Annual clearances of $78,000,000.00. Annual debits to individual accounts, $234,000,000.00.

places are carefully inspected. (See report of Board of Health, 1922, for more detailed information.)

INDUSTRIES: Durham is the second largest industrial city in North Carolina, its output of manufactured products being valued at more than $80,000,000.00 annually. It has large tobacco industries, manufacturing such well-known brands as Duke's Mixture and Bull Durham smoking tobaccos, and Piedmont, 111, Chesterfield, Sovereign and Sweet Caporal cigarettes. It is the home of the Durham Hosiery Mills (manufacturers of the Durable Durham Hosiery, the largest manufacturers of hosiery in the world), and the Golden Belt Manufacturing Company, the largest small bag manufacturers in the world. There are also manufactured in Durham Erwin and White Star sheetings and pillow cases, Glasgow Zephyrs gingham, chambrays and cheviots, Virginia-Carolina fertilizers, Occoneechee, Peerless and Climax flours, silk shirtings and sports goods, blank books, castings and iron products, cigars, harness, bread, ice, mattresses, brick, overalls, wagons, building materials and proprietary medicines. On account of nearness to source of raw materials, cheap electric power and its transportation facilities, Durham offers unexcelled opportunities for the location of industries.

HOSPITALS: Watts Hospital (white), one of the finest hospitals in the South. Value, $1,250,000.00. 102 beds. Personnel of 17 physicians and 48 nurses. Lincoln Hospital (colored). Value, $150,000.00. 100 beds. Personnel of 8 physicians and 21 nurses.

POPULATION: 21,719 (February census, 1920), an increase of 3,478 over 1910, with no increase in area of city. Including population of districts within area of proposed extension of city limits, approximately 35,000. Native born whites, 63.9%; colored, 35.2%; foreign-born whites, 0.8%. Within a radius of twenty-five miles of Durham there are 148,000 people; fifty miles, 508,000; 100 miles, 1,758,000.

PUBLIC UTILITIES: Durham has public utilities furnishing street car, gas, telephone and electric current service. These utilities will compare favorably both in cost of service and in efficiency with those in other cities of similar size.

RECREATION: Two parks containing swimming pools, tennis courts, etc., and several large playgrounds maintained by industrial plants for the use of employees. Golf course with nine holes in use and nine more under construction. Tennis and gun clubs. College football, baseball, basketball and track are always available. The schedules of Trinity College and the University of North Carolina afford Durham citizens the opportunity of seeing some of the best college teams of the East and South in action. Durham also has a professional team in the Piedmont League.

SCHOOLS: The public school system of Durham is nationally known for its equipment, high scholastic standards and progressive policies. In addition, the Durham School of Music and the Southern Conservatory of Music rank among the leaders in their field. The Durham Business School is a fully accredited class "A" institution.

SEWERS: Durham has more than sixty miles of sewers, and the system is being rapidly extended. In the next year or two it is expected that dry closets will be practically eliminated in the city.

SOCIAL: The Piedmont Club affords its members all the advantages of the most modern social club. The Academy of Music, a municipally-owned theatre, is one of the finest in the State. Three motion picture theatres for white and one for colored. One vaudeville theatre.

SOCIAL AGENCIES: Young Men's Christian Association, Young Women's Christian Association, Salvation Army, Red Cross, Travelers' Aid, King's Daughters, Board of Charities and Public Welfare, and Wright's Refuge for Children.

STREETS: Durham is to-day one of the best paved cities in the State, and several hundred thousand dollars are being expended each year for street paving. The white way lighting system in the business district is admitted to be one of the best in the South.

TRANSPORTATION: Durham has five lines of railroads, radiating in seven different directions. It has two lines of Southern Railway, the Seaboard Air Line Railway, the Norfolk and Western Railway, the Durham and Southern Railway and the Norfolk-Southern Railroad. These railroads afford unusually good freight facilities. Durham is also on the National Highway and the Central Highways—the principal routes between the North and South and between the East and West. Excellent bus service is maintained between Durham and Raleigh, Henderson, Oxford, Roxboro, Greensboro, Chapel Hill and Pittsboro.

TAXES AND VALUATION: In 1922 Durham had an assessed valuation of $57,000,000.00 and a city tax rate of 98c on the $100.00. The county of Durham had a tax rate of 81c. The property tax is levied by the State.

Do you know that a copy of this Directory of Durham is being placed in the Directory libraries and among the commercial bodies, Business Men's Clubs, Chambers of Commerce and the larger business institutions throughout the United States?

No other medium on earth can convey so complete and comprehensive an index of the city, its various industries, its business, educational and religious institutions, its social life and its people.

Power of Advertising

The City Directory is the power that generates information for the buyer that he may know who deals in the product he wishes to purchase.

If your business is not classified properly and a display advertisement arranged to describe your business, how can you expect the buyer to trade with you?

Advertising is the foundation upon which successful businesses are built. You must apply this to your own particular business.

Advertising is the power of an idea multiplied.
